A group of approximately 12 people, mostly young adults, are standing in a line in what appears to be a modern, dimly lit indoor space, possibly a conference or event. They are holding a long white banner. The banner has the text 'LA BELLEZZA' written in red capital letters and 'Salverà il Mondo!' written in black cursive below it. The people are dressed in casual to semi-formal attire, including jackets, scarves, and blouses. Some are wearing lanyards with badges. The background shows architectural elements like columns and a curved ceiling with recessed lighting.

A group of approximately ten people, including men and women of various ages, are standing together indoors. They are holding a large white banner that spans across the front of the group. The banner has the text 'LA BELLEZZA' written in large, red, hand-drawn capital letters, and 'Salverà il Mondo!' written below it in smaller, green, hand-drawn letters. Several individuals are wearing blue lanyards with white ID cards around their necks. The background shows an indoor setting with overhead lights and a dark ceiling structure.
